

PERENNIAL CAMPERS

Rapp Nature Camp is happy once again to offer a series of nature outings for adults—our “Perennial Campers!” Our informational meeting in March will be followed by six excursions to interesting habitats in Rappahannock and surrounding counties. Some of our topics for study and observation will be: butterflies and dragonflies, nectar and pollen plants, migrating birds, sky phenomena, and land-use history at Montpelier’s Landmark Forest. To sign up, send completed Registration Form and payment to:

Rapp Nature Camp, P.O. Box 145, Sperryville, VA 22740

NOTE THE FOLLOWING:

- Registration fee is not prorated and includes all 2020 events.*
- Attendance at any event is optional.
- You may bring a guest.
- You are responsible for supervising any guests younger than 18.
- It is fine to arrive late or leave any event early.
- Leave dogs at home.
- Leave apps in the car.
- You will receive email notice of each event on Monday before scheduled date.
- If no email, call 540-987-9530 the day before for confirmation of time and place.
- Anyone can sign up at any time after March 1 by contacting us at:
→→ rappnaturecamp.org or call 540-987-9530 ←←

* Perennial Camper fees help support all of Rapp Nature Camp’s programs. But let us know if the cost limits your ability to attend and we will work with you. We want to see you at our PC events!
